MANAGER'S MESSAGE

You will be busy completing your BPS forms and planning the campaign leading up to the summer. Hay and silage making will soon be the focus for our livestock members. LMR members can provide contracting services for mowing, baling, forage harvesting, wrapping and carting should you need assistance. LMR can also supply string, net and wrap at favourable prices.

LMR will be supplying labour for crop roguing and grainstore cleaning over the next couple of months for arable farmers. Tractor and trailer hire for the harvest are always popular services provided to members. There is currently a choice of makes and models from a number of suppliers. Please call to book while machines are still available. We can also supply telescopic handlers and fuel bowsers to support your operations. Many LMR members will have contracting services available for combining and carting, cultivating and drilling. Please call us for details and competitive prices. There are many situations where using a contractor is a better option than doing the work yourself.

The next few months may provide an opportunity for members to offer training to staff. This may include certification for operating machinery, First Aid or developing workshop skills, as well as covering the imminent loss of Grandfather Rights. LMR has a number of providers of a wide range of courses at competitive prices.

There is always demand from baling contractor members for straw in the swath. Please call for a competitive price if you have some to sell. LMR

Please call either day for light refreshments and a catch up.
